UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

ANDREW FELDMAN,

Defendant.

No. CR-07-731-CRB

STIPULATION AND ORDER MODIFYING CONDITIONS OF PROBATION AND PERMITTING TRAVEL DURING PROBATION PERIOD

WHEREAS, prior to entry of his plea of Guilty and sentencing on December 12, 2007, and thereafter, Andrew Feldman has made permitted trips outside the Northern District of California (the "District") and outside the United States and successfully has returned and been available for all legal proceedings as required;

WHEREAS, Mr. Feldman's business requires travel both outside the District and outside the United States;

WHEREAS, at Mr. Feldman's sentencing on December 12, 2007, the Court imposed standard terms and conditions of probation, which include restrictions on travel;

WHEREAS, the United States Probation Office for the Northern District of California has no objection to relaxation of those restrictions on Mr. Feldman's travel; and

WHEREAS, the United States has no objection to relaxation of those restrictions on Mr. Feldman's travel.

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED that Defendant Andrew Feldman shall be permitted, upon the Court's approval and order, to travel for business purposes outside the District and outside the United States during his probation without further order of the Court. Mr. Feldman shall notify the United States Probation Office for the Northern District of California, substantially in the form of Exhibit A hereto, of all travel plans outside the District.

DATED: January 31, 2008.
